Green Ball Stage (Age 9+ with skills)

Setup: Standard size racquets (25–27 in), full-size court, regular net, and green dot balls.

Focus: All-around skills and sportsmanship! Using tactics in matches, improving court attitude, and showing respect for opponents.

Blue Stage (Ages 10–17)

Perfect for older kids catching up or refining skills on a full court with regular nets.

Stage 1 (Beginner): Uses green dot and regular balls. Focuses on learning the basics so players can quickly start playing matches.

Stage 2 (Intermediate): Uses regular balls. Focuses on polishing strokes, learning strategy, and spotting an opponent's strengths and weaknesses.

Bronze Stage (Ages 11–17)

Focus: Consistency and ball control. Players learn to read their opponent's weaknesses. (Requires a coach evaluation to join).

Silver Stage (Ages 11–17)

Focus: Team and tournament play. High-energy drills focused on court positioning and making smart, quick tactical decisions. (Requires a coach evaluation to join).

Gold Stage (Ages 14–17)

Focus: Elite high school and USTA tournament players. High-level tactics, strong stroke fundamentals, and intense competitive skills. (Requires a coach evaluation to join).

High Performance (Ages 8–14)

Focus: Elite USTA tournament players. High-level curriculum. (*By invite only. Requires a coach evaluation to join).
